

Vineyard Oil & Gas Company

your connection to the

Marcellus Shale

Within the past five years one of the most significant natural gas development discoveries was made in our region. The Marcellus Shale could provide the total consumption needs for the entire United States for over two decades.

As an oil and gas producer and marketer, Vineyard Oil & Gas Company was on the forefront of establishing the Marcellus Shale gas production as a supply source to customers located in the Northeast United States, and even Canada.

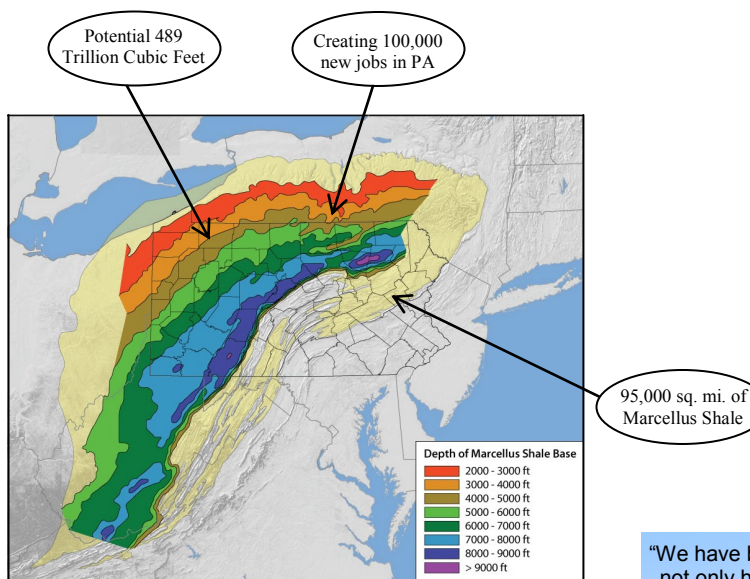

This enormous reservoir, still in its developmental infancy, could serve to reduce your energy costs and provide a long term domestic energy inventory: virtually in your backyard.

How Can The Marcellus Shale Lower Your Natural Gas Costs?

- Eliminate long haul pipeline charges
- Long term supply inventory provides unique hedging opportunities
- Locally purchased product impact our area's economy, thereby improving nearby business cycle

"Vineyard's expertise has been saving the City of Erie $50,000 a year since 2007."

- Sid Goldstein, Purchasing Agent
City of Erie

"The value of this science could increment the net worth of U.S. energy resources by a trillion dollars, plus or minus billions."

- Terry Engelder, Professor
Penn State

Wellsboro, PA - The drill site of Vineyard's largest Marcellus producer/partner, East Resources, Inc. In August 2010, East Resources' owner Terry Pegula, sold East Resources to Royal Dutch Shell for $4.7 billion. Though the name has changed, the gas remains the same. Vineyard and Shell continue to build on the relationship that was started with East Resources over 20 years ago.

At Vineyard Oil & Gas Company we specialize in purchasing natural gas from reliable local producers and providing it at the lowest possible price.

Founded in 1978 in North East, PA, Vineyard began as a producer and in 1984 became the first marketer on the National Fuel system.

Vineyard offers a variety of services including, price hedging strategies, personalized cost analysis, and real-time market intelligence.

We would be happy to share the Vineyard and Marcellus Shale story with you, and why our expertise could prove to be of value to your business.

"Some people talk about it for a living, Vineyard Oil & Gas Company does it for a living."

- Terry Pegula, President, East Resources, Inc.
and Owner, Buffalo Sabres

"We have been buying all of our natural gas from Vineyard for the last 15 years, and not only has the service been excellent, but the people at Vineyard have been a joy to deal with."

- Ed Krainski, Treasurer
Zurn Industries, Inc.
